FORGERY CHARGE
IS MADE IN CASE OF GOO WAN HOY

Go Wan Hoy, constable against Assistant J. H. Fisher, in an action brought before the supreme court to compel the territorial official to pay over to him $4,000, made the unpleasant experience of becoming involved in a criminal proceeding as a result of the hearing this morning before the high tribunal.

Taking the stand to give his reasons for refusing to pay the claims, J. H.
Conkling, territorial treasurer, added a charge of forgery this morning to the hearing by testifying that he has held up the claims for the reason that he believes the names on several of them are forged, and falsely sworn to, and that he holds affidavits to sustain this belief.

It is stated by an official concerned in this case that criminal proceedings may follow as a result of the discussion this morning. This afternoon the supreme court is listening to further evidence, and several of the records held by Treasurer Conkling, and on which he relies to sustain his forgery theory, are in court.

Asked why he had held up a certain claim, Mr. Conkling said:
"I didn't pay the claim because I am sure it was a forgery; and I have an affidavit to that effect."

The same question asked regarding another claim brought this reply:
"I am sure that the signatures on the claim and the assignment are not good. I cannot be convinced that it is not a case of forgery."

Attorney-general I. M. Stainback objected, when Mr. Conkling was put on the stand, to J. Lightfoot, the opposing attorney, going into the reasons held by the treasurer for not paying the claims. His objection was based on the fact that Mr. Conkling was not a party to the action, and hence his reasons for withholding the claims were immaterial in the present proceedings. The court overruled the objection, subject to reconsideration.
The amount involved in the action is about $1000. In about 20 instances Conkling's reason as given for withholding the claims is forgery, in some instances forgeries of the claim itself, and in others of the assignment. The treasurer has not stated who he believes forged them, nor has Go Wan Hoy taken the stand to testify on the points raised by Mr. Conkling.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR COLONEL APPEL

The ashes of Colonel D. M. Appel, whose remains were cremated two days ago, will be conveyed to the mainland on the army transport to arrive here May 4, and a simple funeral service will be held from the residence of Lieutenant-Colonel Reynolds, M. C., U. S. A., 1814 Nuuanu street, just prior to the sailing of the troopship. The remains will be escorted to the transport with full military honors.

After a lingering illness resulting from tuberculosis, Cecil Alfred Whitaker, for the past year and a half a resident of Honolulu, died yesterday.
Deceased came to this city from Vancouver and was engaged in the real estate business, maintaining an office at the terminus of the Waialae street car line. The remains have been embalmed and will be held here pending the arrival of directions from a brother who resides on the mainland.

LORD ERNE REPORTS.

ing Diamond Head, bound for Sydney, reports, "All well."

CHINESE PLACED UNDER ARREST ON AN OPIUM CHARGE

Chun Kee, ostensibly a tailor, with a little shop on King street opposite the O. R. R. depot, was arrested in his place of business about 7 o'clock Saturday evening by Detectives Mc-Bottle, Kellett, and Kwan. He is charged with having opium unlawfully in his possession, and this morning he was held for an investigation by the federal grand jury, Commissioner Davis fixing bail at $750.

At the time the arrest was made the "hinaman" is alleged to have been in the act of hiding one tin of the drug proscriber. The detectives, who have had the place under surveillance for some time, claim that Chun Kee has been doing a regular business in dealing to the addicts of the poppy drug. They say that the frequenter of the joint had ascertained that the regular hours of duty of the detective force are from 9 to 12 a. m., 1 to 4 p. m., and 7 to 11 p. m., and had been in the habit of smoking only during the hours the officers were supposed to be off duty. On Saturday, however, the system failed to work, and 5 o'clock proved the undoing of the wily tailor.

UNEMPLOYED PROBLEM
RESULTING IN PETTY
THIEVERY, SAYS BOWEN

That the present labor situation resulting in the unemployed is resulting in a series of petty thefts about town was the declaration made this morning by Spencer Bowen, manager of the Associated Charities. Mr. Bowen said that, from a number of sources, he has learned of several instances where places have been broken into and goods stolen. Even the office of the charities, he says, has been entered and articles carried off.

Mr. Bowen stated that he attributes this state of affairs to the fact that such a large number of men of several nationalities now are out of employment.
"I had an idea that this would come," he said, "in fact, I warned the board of supervisors at the time when I presented to it matters concerning the Associated Charities."

The manager of the charities named the proprietor of a certain restaurant who deals with the organization, as one of his informers. He says that a few nights ago the office of the charities was entered and a feather bed and several small articles of value were stolen.

There were 150 calls at the office of the charities this morning by persons seeking employment and other assistance. Miss Emily Farley, second assistant manager, reported that 12 men have been given work clearing the Kamehameha campus, at a wage of $1.25 a day. Miss Farley further reported that the majority of those men who recently refused to work at the Koolau Agriculture Company's plantation have been found physically unfit to do manual labor.

WALTER WILLIAMS,
NOTED JOURNALIST,
ARRIVES TOMORROW

Walter Williams, dean of the school of journalism of the University of Missouri, will arrive in Honolulu tomorrow afternoon on the Nippon Maru, en route to the mainland after a trip around the world which has included an extensive tour of the Orient.
During his brief stay here, Mr. Williams will be the guest of the local University of Missouri delegation.

With a view to assisting Mr. Williams in an investigation which he has been making along certain journalistic lines, plans will be made to arrange a conference with the local newspaper men.

ALEXANDER CANAVARRO
SOLE HEIR TO ESTATE
OF PORTUGUESE CONSUL

A petition for the probate of the will of A. de Souza Canavarro, late Portuguese consul, was filed this morning in the circuit court, and the time of the hearing of the petition was set for June 9 by Judge Whitney.

The petition is filed by the Bishop Trust Company, asking for letters of administration with the will annexed.
It is stated in the petition that the deceased by his will named Samuel Damon and James B. Castle as executors, but that they have both declined to act. It is brought out that Alexander Canavarro, now in Washington, D. C., is the only heir.

INDICTMENTS AGAINST 14 RETURNED BY THE FEDERAL GRAND JURY

Fourteen indictments were returned this morning by the federal grand jury as a result of its work during the past two weeks. All of these were placed on the secret list pending the apprehension of the parties charged.
It is understood that most of the cases are for alleged statutory offenses under the Edmunds or white slave act, and most of all have to do with Japanese or other alien residents.

Following the report of the grand jury, the U. S. district court adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.
The grand jury is continuing its work today, and probably will be in session during the forenoon during the remainder of the week.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The annual meeting of the Women's Fund and Auxiliary will be held in St. Andrew's cathedral parish house tomorrow afternoon at 4 p. m.

On the ground of desertion A. J.
Cooper was given a divorce this morning from Ida Cooper. The proceedings were held in Judge Whitney's court.

A decree of divorce was given Sataro Tomoda from C. Tomoda. The ground of desertion is given as the cause. The hearing was had before Judge Whitney of the circuit court.

Miss McCannville of St. Paul, Minnesota, who has been spending about four months at the Pleasanton hotel, will make an extended tour of the Orient during the next six months.

George McKnew and H. Bohley, who were found guilty by a jury in Judge Dickey's court last week of assault and battery, were sentenced to pay a fine of $25 each and costs of court this morning.

Two slight earthquake shocks, distinctly felt in all parts of the city, were recorded at 6:43 o'clock Saturday evening. The first shock was short and quick, while the other, occurring a few seconds later, was somewhat heavier.

All members of the Young Men's Christian Association who intend to attend the annual meeting and dinner on the evening of May 5, are requested to notify the office at once in order that the necessary seating arrangements may be made.

With a view to securing finances for a fresh milk fund for the children of the Liliuokalani school, the members of the Mothers' Club of Kaimuki will be hostesses at a dance and entertainment in the assembly hall of the school Friday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

Judge Whitney of the circuit court directed Manuel Espinda, against whom an action for divorce is pending, to pay his wife alimony of $7 a week pending the disposition of the case, costs of court, taxed at $13, and an attorney fee fixed at $25.

The two charges against Leong Sang for doing business without a license were heard by Judge Dickey of the circuit court this morning. On motion of the prosecution, the sentence was suspended for 13 months.
It being shown that the licenses have been paid.

A suit was filed this afternoon in the circuit court by S. Halama against Kaili Halama. The suit is for the purpose of causing a deed given by S. Halama to Kaili Halama to be cancelled. It is claimed the deed was given while complainant was a minor, and that it was obtained by fraud.

His wife refusing to testify against him on a charge of assault and battery, and wishing the proceedings she had instituted against her better half dropped, Judge Dickey consented to strike the action from the calendar this morning, a motion to that point having been made by A. M. Brown, deputy city and county attorney.

Edward Cluney, charged with driving a machine while intoxicated, appeared before Judge Dickey this morning for trial. The prosecution pointed out that there was a material conflict in the evidence, and recommended that the case be nolleed, which was done.

The case of the territory against Kojima and eight others was disposed of this morning before Judge Dickey.
Only three of the defendants appeared, and on motion of the prosecution the charges against these were dropped; the others suffered a forfeiture of bond. They were all charged with being present at a gambling game.

Secretaries of the local Young Men's Christian Association to the number of four visited Ewa plantation Saturday morning and secured 12 new members to the association.
Out-of-town men are joining the association in order, that they may have definite headquarters when they visit the city.

"Mexico" formed the topic of a highly interesting illustrated lecture delivered in Central Union church last night by Rev. A. A. Ebersole, associate pastor. The pictures brought out many excellent views of places in the troublesome southern republic, and the lecture dealt with the great work which the American Board of Foreign Missions is doing there.

F. W. Dohrmann, of the firm of Nathan-Dohrmann & Company of San Francisco, and president of the W.
W. Dimond & Company of this city, will arrive by the Massena tomorrow for a several weeks' visit. Mr. Dohrmann very recently lost his wife through death, and his present visit is partly in hope of benefiting his own impaired health.

David Kalanokalani, Jr., city and county clerk, will shortly issue a registration notice. After inviting voters to register at his office, he will call attention to the fact that no voters will be allowed to vote at the primary election who have not registered prior to September 2, but that any voter who has changed his address from one precinct to another may re-register.

In case the United States government should issue a call for volunteers in view of further complications with Mexico, local Filipinos to the number of several thousand will stand ready to swell the ranks of either National Guard or the regular troops. This announcement has been made by Leopold Theodore, a member of the Filipino Y. M. C. A., who has

PORTLAND GIRL
SEEKS AFFINITY
IN HAWAII NEI

Here is a Portland, Oregon, young lady who is desirous of coming to this city and, incidentally, marrying a Honolulu man. In a letter recently received by the Promotion Committee, she does not say whether she is pretty or wealthy, but she asks Secretary H. P. Wood for both matrimonial and business advice. Mr. Wood said this morning that he would answer the letter and supply the young lady with the required business information, but it would be out of the question for him to at this time endeavor to secure a husband for her, he concluded.

The letter follows:
"I have heard so much about Honolulu and read all the literature that was sent to a friend. I have decided to take a trip to your beautiful city next fall, and I would also make it a home as I would like to be where it is warm all the time. I would also like a Honolulu man as my husband. Judging from the position which you hold, that I could rely upon any information you will be kind enough to give me, I am taking the liberty of writing to you."

Morning on
'CHANGE

Stocks generally continue firm, though the demand was less keen today than it was on Saturday, and few sales were made, other than those made on Saturday after closing of the board. Ewa gained a quarter point, 5 shares selling at 13 1/4. Hawaiian Commercial to the extent of 120 shares sold between boards for 23 1/4, a quarter of a point advance.
At close 23 bid, 23 1/4 asked. Mc-Bryde, which sold on Saturday at 1 1/4, was bid 1 1/4 today, none offered. Oahu advanced its quotation one-half point, selling between boards at 13 flat, 12 1/4 bid, 12 1/2 asked at close. Olua has also strengthened an eighth, selling between boards to the extent of 100 shares at 1 1/2. The demand was fairly strong at this figure, and holders were asking 1 1/4 at close. No sales of Onomea took place, but holders have jumped the asking price up to 18, with 16 bid. O. R. & L. shaded off 1 point, selling this morning at 120. Centrif-ugals remain unchanged—3.01 cents.
Beets lost a penny, being quoted at 98.
3d.; partly, 3.51 cents.

by the College Club of Hawaii for housing the women patients to the Kaimuki institution, will be opened next Friday for inspection by the pub-being issued for the occasion.

The cottage was erected in memory of the late Dr. Francis Day, at one time a prominent physician of Honolulu. The structure cost $5000, and was constructed by the College Club with the funds remaining in its treas-for the benefit of the Anti-Tuberculosis campaign. The cottage is built of wood and native stone and will ac-
